To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Ms. Susan Constantine. I have personally seen her work on several occasions and have found her to be a consistently dynamic presenter with a solid, knowledge based program geared to upbeat and fast paced learning.

Ms. Constantine was in Miami at my behest where she conducted training sessions with a very diverse constituency, including police officers, attorneys, private sector security personnel as well as dozens of our protective investigations team members. Her training skills provided for these different disciplines to merge into one cohesive group and maximize their learning in the given time frame.

I have also observed Ms. Constantine instruct under pressure situations involving significant peer evaluation and she performed flawlessly. I have no hesitation in highly recommending her as an outstanding trainer and speaker.

Sincerely,

Greg Feldman
